Market Commentary:

The EGX30 remained quietly flat for the 18th consecutive session as balanced trading still overwhelms closing slightly positive leaving everything in place.

Short term trend is up as long as buyers manages to defend the mentioned support zone and we still expect containing the recent profit taking process and continue higher to the 2nd target level 11800 where we recommend to trade partially on. Bear in mind that the coming resistance zone will likely be reached where we may continue trading on.

Held positions should keep close protective stops to maximize profits.

Commercial international bank (COMI.CA):

Prices witnessed a failure rally attempt ahead of trading before selling pressure dominates closing slightly negative keeping everything in place. Yet, bulls still have the near term technical advantage as long as sustaining the support level 66.00 and falling near will represent a good buying opportunity. Overall, we expect recovering the broken support and continue higher reaching the second level 69.50 where we may trade partially on bearing in mind that the rally have the strong potential to continue to the resistance level 71.00.

Support levels: 66.00, 63.00
Resistance levels: 67.50, 69.50

Hermes Holding (HRHO.CA):

Prices traded flat closing slightly negative as balanced trading dominated leaving everything in place. Notice that managing to break 14.00 will give the bulls the near term technical advantage where we may trade safely above. As we said, we recommend to stay on cash and wait for a confirmed buy signal to react safely on. Any held positions should watch the mentioned support as it represents an important defensive line.

Support levels: 12.65, 11.90
Resistance levels: 13.50, 14.00

El-Ezz steel rebar's' (ESRS.CA):

Prices closed slightly positive after giving back most of the early gains leaving everything in place. As we said, we believe it represents a good buying opportunity specially that technical indicators and trading volumes still supports the bull case suggesting further climbing which will likely extend to the second target 9.00 where we may use to trade gradually on the targets. Always keep close stop levels placed and respected to protect the downside.

Support levels: 7.75-7.55, 7.00
Resistance levels: 8.25, 9.00
